"ZACH IN ACTION"

- "NOT BY MIGHT, NOR BY POWER, BUT BY MY SPIRIT!!" (ZECH. 4:6)
- 1) I will remember that the Lord considers my study time as time spent with Him.
- 2) I will quiz unto the Lord and not against the other team or against my own team members.
- 3) After I prepare with all my might, I will put the hard work behind me and reach to the Lord, trusting Him to put what He knows is best for me in my hand.
- 4) If I win, I will not let pride in my heart but will give glory to Jesus for the victory He gave, and remember where any ability comes from in the first place.
- 5) If I lose, I will not sink into despair but will trust God to teach me the lessons I need to learn in defeat.
- 6) I will always pray before I study, asking Jesus for His help and blessing. I will pray for my other team members and coaches each day.
- 7) When I feel like giving up, I will refuse to do so, because I quiz by His might and power and that supply is endless. (Remember the 3-legged stool?)
- 8) I will always remember that my coach is the leader and will follow directions always—even when I don't like it or understand why. I know God cannot bless disobedience.
- 9) When my team mates or other quizzers do well, I will rejoice with them in their joy.
- 10) When my team mates or other quizzers do not do well, I will encourage them and pray for them.
- 11) I will remember that God will not judge me by my success in the eyes of others, but by my faithfulness in preparation.
- 12) I will always remember that I am filling my heart full of the Word of God so that I can be ready to fill my place in the Kingdom full of knowledge and power!!
- 13) At every tournament, I will be aware that I represent my team, my pastor, my church, my city and above all—MY LORD!!

"ZACH" in ACTION "Not by might, nor by power, but by MY SPIRIT!" (Zechariah 4:6)

"Zach" in action means...

- 1) I will always remember where the ability comes from and praise Jesus when I do well so prIde cannot live in my heart!
- 2) I will not give up (or make faces) when I am not doing well, knowing that Jesus is pleased with me for trying.
- 3) I will guiz unto Jesus, NOT against the other team or my own teammates.

To be a good team member...

- 4) I will pray for my teammates and coaches.
- 5) I will encourage my teammates when they are discouraged.
- 6) I will be glad for each teammate when they do well. Every point scored by any of us is for the team and we're all together the team!
- 7) I will always obey my coaches, knowing God cannot bless disobedience or rebellion.
- 8) I will remember I am here representing my team, my parents, my coach, my church and pastor, my city, my state, and above all my God!
- 9) I will Now put all my hard work behind me and REACH to Jesus for His will, and trust HIM with the results.
